

The image is a highly decorative title page from a 16th-century book. It features a central rectangular text box with a double-line border. The text is in a Gothic script. Above the text box, there is a large, intricate woodcut illustration. At the top center is a crown-like structure with a cross on top, surrounded by floral and leaf motifs. Below this, two winged cherubs are shown in a dynamic, dancing pose. The entire scene is framed by a large, arched decorative element. On the left and right sides of the arch, there are figures of women in classical-style dresses, appearing to support the structure. The bottom of the page shows a smaller scene with a man in a long coat and hat walking towards the right, and a woman in a ruffled dress following him. The background of the bottom scene includes a landscape with a building and trees.

Sendbryff Andres Boden.
von Carolstatt.

Erklerung Pauli.

Ich bitt euch Brüder das yhr
alle sampt ein meinung
reden welt.

i. Co. i.

Wittenberg.

M. D. xxi.