

Epistola s. IOANNIS prima.

AMOR

An engraving depicting St. John the Evangelist seated on the right, writing with a quill. He is dressed in a long, flowing robe and is barefoot. In the background, a winged figure (the Holy Spirit) is shown above a cloud containing the word 'AMOR'. To the left, a figure is seen in a state of distress or suffering, possibly representing the 'world, the flesh, and the devil' mentioned in the text. The scene is set in a rocky, cavernous environment.

Die erste Epistel
St. Johannis.